

CONTENTS

OF

THE FOURTH VOLUME.

Vol. IV. (Part I).

PART I.—ORIGINAL CONTRIBUTIONS.

	PAGE
1. G. CRITCHETT, On Abscission in Staphyloma	1
2. DR. J. H. JACKSON, On Defects of Sight in Brain Disease	12
3. DR. C. BADER, On Syndectomy	19
4. „ „ Report on Granular Conjunctivitis treated by Inoculation with Pus.....	27
5. F. MARSDIN, On Keratitis	30
6. DR. J. H. JACKSON, On Ophthalmoscopic Examination during Sleep.....	35
7. D. A. ROBERTSON, On the Effects of the Calabar Bean on the Eye	38

PART II.—PERISCOPE.

1. Further Remarks on Glaucoma and the Results of Iri- dectomy, by Professor A. v. GRAEFE. (By W. Bow- man.)	41
2. Observations on Diseases of the Cornea and Conjunctiva, by DR. H. SNELLEN. (By THOS. WINDSOR)	58
3. On Suture in Entropion, by DR. H. SNELLEN	63

PART III.—MINOR CONTRIBUTIONS.

1. G. LAWSON, On Peritomy	64
2. „ „ On Amaurosis	65

CONTENTS.

v

PAGE

2. G. CRITCHETT, A Case of Congenital Cataract treated by Iridesis in which some Modifications were introduced in the Operation	150
3. J. W. HULKE, A Tabular Review of 106 Cases of Squint Treated by Operation. With Remarks	158
4. J. W. HULKE, A Case of Chronic Mucocele of the Ethmoidal Cells Invading the Left Orbit, and Acute Abscess of the Right Frontal Sinus	176
5. GEORGE LAWSON, Traumatic Cataract Produced without Rupture of the External Coats of the Eye	179
6. GEORGE LAWSON, Inoculation and Syndectomy	182
7. JONATHAN HUTCHINSON, Cases Illustrating the Connexion of the Fifth Nerve with the Nutrition of the Eye-ball	189
8. T. PRIDGIN TEALE, A Suction-Curette for Extraction of Soft Cataract	197
9. WILLIAM NEWMAN, Congenital Blindness in Two Sisters—Absence of Optic Disc and Retinal Vessels	202
10. W. S. WATSON, Case of Severe Burn of the Face, Causing Destruction of the Right Eye. The Orifices of the Ducts of the Lachrymal Gland Exposed	204

PART II.—PERISCOPE.

1. PROFESSOR VON GRAEFE, Observations on Compressive Bandages	206
2. " " On Perforation of the Detached Retina and on Division of Membranous Opacities in the Vitreous Humour	213

Vol IV. (Part III.)

PART I.—ORIGINAL CONTRIBUTIONS.

1. GEORGE LAWSON, On the Treatment of Prolapse of the Iris	227
--	-----

	PAGE
2. JONATHAN HUTCHINSON, Report on Cases of Amaurosis From Intra-Cranial Causes, in which one Eye only was Affected	235
3. J. W. HULKE, A Contribution to the Anatomy of the Amphibian and Reptilian Retina	243
4. C. BADER, Report on Cases of Pannus (Vascular Cornea), with and without Granular Conjunctiva, treated by Inoculation	269
5. C. BADER, Two Cases of Diabetic Cataract.....	288
6. W. S. WATSON, On the Interstitial Keratitis of Inherited Syphilis	291
7. W. SPENCER WATSON, On Phlyctenular Keratitis and Vascular Ulcers of the Cornea, and on the Use of the Seton in these Cases	301

PART II.—PERISCOPE.

DR. OTTO BECKER, On the Position and Action of the Ciliary Processes in the Human Eye—A Contribution to the Theory of Accommodation.....	304
Index to Plate	313

Vol. IV. (Part IV).

1. GEORGE CRITCHETT, On the Removal of Cataract by the Scoop-method, or the method by Traction	315
2. WILLIAM BOWMAN, On Extraction of Cataract by a Traction-Instrument, with Iridectomy, with Remarks on Capsular Obstructions and their Treatment	332
3. GEORGE LAWSON, On the Injuries to the Eyes, to which Engineers and Boiler Makers are specially exposed ..	369
4. GEORGE LAWSON, On a Case of Dislocation of the Lens into the Anterior Chamber; excessive pain two years after the Injury, and Loss of Sight; Extraction of the Lens, followed by immediate Posterior Hemorrhage	379
5. JONATHAN HUTCHINSON, A Group of Cases illustrating the occasional connection between Neuralgia of the Dental Nerves and Amaurosis	381

CONTENTS.

vii

	PAGE
6. J. HUGHLINGS JACKSON, M.D., Observations on Defects of Sight in Diseases of the Nervous System	389
7. JONATHAN HUTCHINSON, On a Case of Chronic Glaucoma with some Peculiar Features	447
8. W. SPENCER WATSON, Note of a Case of Glaucoma in which the application of Atropine restored temporarily the Translucency of the Dioptric Media	449
INDEX	451

